

Supervisor Workshop Pathology Update 2019

Resolving Training Problems

The 2019 Supervisor Workshop will be in the form of Case Studies based on common training issues. Audience participation via mobile phones will enable everyone to provide suggestion about solutions and appropriate actions when commonly encountered difficult training situations occur.

Date
TIME	TOPIC	SPEAKER
3.00 to 3.10	Introduction and ice breaker activity to check interactive technology	Dr Kathy Robinson, RCPA Education Advisor
3.10 - 3.25	When trainees don't meet expectations	Dr Rebecca Adams, Co-ordinator Haematology Advanced Training Queensland
3.25 – 3.55	Is this Bullying?	Prof Elizabeth Salisbury, NSWHP AP Training Co-ordinator
3.55 – 4.10	Allegations of favouritism	Dr Anand Murugasu, Co-ordinator AP Training Victoria
4.10 - 4.30	The “unpopular” trainee	Dr Jim Griffiths, Co-ordinator Haematology Advanced Training Victoria, Tasmania and NT
4.30 – 4.50	Afternoon Tea
4.50 – 5.05	Trainees who “overwhelm” the workplace – health and behavioural issues	Dr Kathy Robinson, RCPA Education Advisor
5.05 - 5.20	Coping with examination failure and supporting Trainees in Difficulty	Panel discussion – lead by network coordinators
5.20 - 5.35	Can mentoring make a difference?	Dr Wendy Pryor, RCPA Director of Education and Accreditation
5.35 – 5.45	Personal and health problems in the lead up to examinations	Dr Kathy Robinson, RCPA Education Advisor
5.45 – 6.00	Final comments	Chair: Dr Kathy Robinson, RCPA Education Advisor