

International Pathology Day and you Wednesday 15 November 2017

It's on again!

International Pathology Day is a time to celebrate the pathology profession and the RCPA can help you do that with great promotional items, available FREE, for hospitals, collection centres, laboratories, medical schools/universities anyone, anywhere people will be getting involved with Pathology Day.

Just to make things that little bit more interesting the College is offering some great prizes this year!!! To enter post your information and/or photos of your events to the College Facebook page or send directly to the College. Categories are:

- 1) Most innovative idea [Prize: Food Hamper]
- 2) Best dressed display [Prize: 10 Movie ticket gift cards]
- 3) Best photo for the caption: 'Pathology in action' [Prize: iPad]

First things first!

You need your box of goodies. Last year some organisations left it too late and missed the deadline. Don't let this be you. The goods are packed and sent by an external company thus the closing date cannot be extended.

Orders: Complete the form, and email it to edac@rcpa.edu.au

Send: Via email edac@rcpa.edu.au (may be faxed 61-2 8356 5828) or mailed

Enquiries? edac@rcpa.edu.au 61-2 8356 5858

Delivery: Overseas packs will be sent early October, local packs in late October. All packs should be received by the end of the first week in November.

Closing: Friday 15 September, 2017 Orders not accepted after the closing date
