

Regulation

Subject: Needs of Aboriginal, Torres Strait Islanders and Māori People
Approval Date: February 2018
Review Date: February 2022
Review By: Board of Directors
Number: 1/2018

The Royal College of Pathologists of Australasia's Constitution states the Objects of the Organisation. Rule 3.1 (7) states:

“to seek improved health for all people by developing and advocating health policy in partnership with health consumers;”

The College has identified Aboriginal, Torres Strait Islanders and Māori people as people who have special healthcare needs.

The College has established the ATSI and Māori Health and Workforce Steering Group to oversee important work for these peoples.

Ref: Terms of Reference for ATSI and Māori Health and Workforce Steering Group.