Laboratory supports large haematology unit
(17 consultants – 7 haematopathologists)
- 4 haematology inpatient units
  - allogeneic bone marrow transplant
  - 2 general haematology
  - haemostasis/thrombosis unit
- Full-time transfusion medicine specialist
- Extensive haematology clinical trials (AML & myeloma)
- State haemophilia centre
- Links to:
  - haematology research laboratories (Australian Centre for Blood Diseases – Monash University)
  - Transfusion Outcomes Research Collaborative (Monash Uni Dept. of Epidemiology)

Laboratory supports 3 hospitals
- The Alfred
  - Victoria’s largest trauma centre
  - Heart, lung & renal transplantation
  - HIV medicine
- Sandringham Hospital
  - General medicine, obstetrics
- Caulfield
  - Aged care, rehabilitation

Broad experience of malignant & non-malignant haematology
Opportunities for collaboration in research
All registrars do research projects
Support & education in preparation for FRCPA examinations
2020 laboratory haematology training positions

- 4 full-time registrars Alfred Hospital laboratory
- 2 first year laboratory training, 2 second year laboratory training

Contact:

Dr Sue Morgan
Head, Haematology Laboratory
s.morgan@alfred.org.au